

The World of MULTIVAC

Global contacts

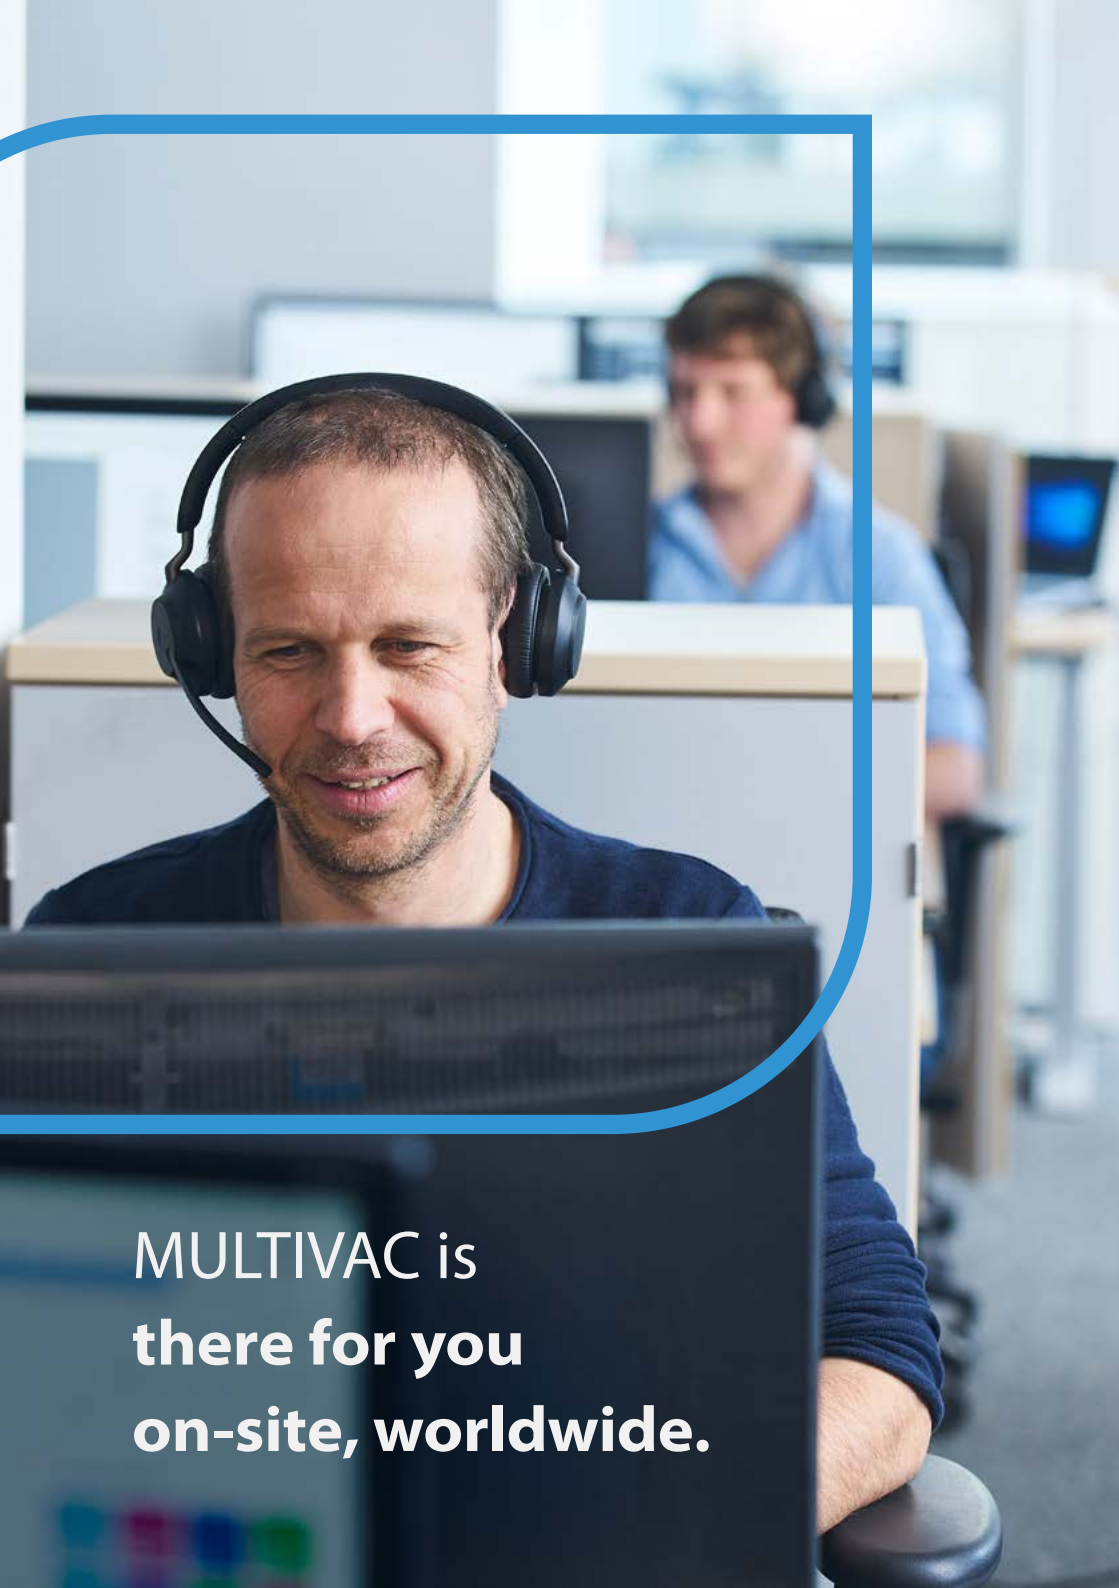

September 2023

Our sales and service network comprises more than 85 subsidiaries. We are present on all continents and in all important markets. At all times and in all places, more than 1,000 consultants and service technicians will offer you expert advice and a comprehensive range of services covering all areas of packaging, as well as support you on your way to the best possible and most efficient overall solution. Our technical service, combined with rapid availability of spare parts, ensures all MULTIVAC machines installed worldwide are at maximum readiness.

We would ask for your understanding, that we respect international law, embargoes and sanction measures. This creates a situation, where we can not supply customers in some of the specified countries with products and services. If you have any questions, you can refer to the named contact persons.

MULTIVAC is there for you
on-site, worldwide.
